Before it moves in: 5 questions to talk about as a family

For families about to bring home an AI assistant with memory or a humanoid robot. This is not a legal document. It's a conversation.

Print it, or tick the boxes here (nothing is saved). Bring it to the table with your parents, your partner or your kids.

1 Who may read or listen to what I tell the AI or the robot, if one day I'm gone or can't decide?

Companion apps and home robots keep a record of what we tell them.

☐ No one ☐ Only… ☐ Let's talk about it Other

2 May my face or my voice be used to recreate me?

In July 2026, UBTech said it would give away robots able to reconstruct a person's face in 3D and copy their voice, to "recreate designated individuals."

☐ No ☐ Yes, only for… ☐ Let's talk about it Other

3 Who decides to switch it off, reset it or sell it?

In The Tireless Parent, a widower won't let his children take away the robot that knew how his wife liked her pillow arranged.

☐ Me ☐ … ☐ Let's talk about it Other

4 If the company shuts down, what do we do with it, and with what it knows?

It happened with Moxie in 2024: the robot stopped working within days.

☐ We keep it ☐ We erase it ☐ Let's talk about it Other

5 What will we never hand over to it?

Write three things.

☐ … ☐ … ☐ … Other

Scan with one phone and play the table test together (2 to 12 people, everyone answers in private).
